

I oppose taking a vote which will lead to more media consolidation. The public interest is better served by diversification of outlets. Consolidation dampens public dialogue and results in less information available to the public. It only serves private interests and results in an unwarranted and inappropriate give-away of public assets.